

Bridging Innovation and Learning in TVET (BILT) Thematic Workshop New Qualifications and Competencies (NQC) in TVET

12-13 November 2019 – SFIVET, Switzerland

Agenda

12 November	Tuesday
08:30-09:00	Registration and welcome coffee
09:00-09:45	Welcome and opening Erik Swars, Head of International Affairs, SFIVET Jens Liebe, Senior Programme Expert, UNESCO-UNEVOC Jérôme Hügli, Scientific Advisor, State Secretariat for Education, Research and Innovation SERI, Switzerland Dr. Oliver Diehl, Deputy Head of Division, Federal Ministry for Education and Research, Germany Introduction of the participants Group Picture
09:45-10:30	Framing the workshop Overview of the BILT project: objectives and expected outcomes Jens Liebe, Senior Programme Expert, UNESCO-UNEVOC New Careers and Competencies Framework Michael Schwarz, Deputy Head of Division, BIBB New Qualifications and Competencies from a Swiss perspective Emanuel Wüthrich, Senior Advisor International Affairs, SFIVET Introduction to the structure of the thematic workshop Vera Hark, Project Manager/Technical Advisor, BIBB
10:30-11:00	Coffee Break
11:00-12:00	Approaches to New Qualifications and Competencies (Session I): Identification of New Qualifications and Competencies and their Introduction into Curricula and Training (Systemic Level) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Employers Intervention in the governance of the French qualifications System in the light of the most recent VET reforms Matteo Sgarzi, CÉREQ, France ESF funded project: VET reform in Croatia Karolina Maduna, AVEATE, Croatia BuildEst Project Aulika Riisenberg, Foundation Innove, Estonia

IN COLLABORATION WITH

COORDINATED BY UNESCO-UNEVOC
WITH SUPPORT OF

SPONSORED BY THE

12:00-13:00	World Café Debate (Session I) Three Tables with guiding questions
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:00	Approaches to New Qualifications and Competencies (Session II): Practical examples of new competencies in the field of initial and continuing TVET and in the field of upskilling (Practical Level) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Securing the validity of online exams Gitte Vestergaard/Alan Amstrup, CBC, Denmark 2. Innovative approaches to learning the profession at Daugavpils VET School Oksana Soročina/Linda Pudane, Daugavpils construction Technical School, Latvia 3. Individual learning paths and use of modern technologies in learning Kati Valtonen, OMNIA, Finland
15:00-16:00	World Café Debate (Session II) Three tables with guiding questions
16:00-16:30	Coffee Break
16:30-17:00	Bridging Innovation and Learning in Practice & Wrap up Day 1 Erik Swars, Head of International Affairs, SFIVET Vera Hark, Project Manager/Technical Advisor, BIBB Tristan Cole, Project Officer, UNESCO-UNEVOC
17:00-17:30	Open Networking Session Opportunity for bilateral conversations
19:00	Group Dinner

13 November Wednesday
09:00-09:30	Cross-Cutting BILT: Elements relevant from other work streams Tristan Cole, Project Manager, UNESCO-UNEVOC Vera Hark, Project Manager/Technical Advisor, BIBB
09:30-10:30	Which New Qualifications and Competencies are needed? Examples from across the BILT themes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Digitalisation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Changing labour markets, upskilling, and VET in Switzerland Manuel Aepli, Research and Development, SFIVET • Create new skills and certifications for additive manufacturing Margarida Segard, ISQ Academy, Portugal 2. Greening: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aligning VET Curricula to Greening and the SDGs Audrey Gatt, MCAST, Malta • GRÆDUCATION Silke Steinberg/Stamatia Aidonidou, FIAP e.V., Germany/Greece 3. Entrepreneurship: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individual Availability and Different Paces of Learning of each Trainee José Novais da Fonseca, CENFIM, Portugal • Founder's hub Dorte Kjaergaard, CBC, Denmark (tbc)
10:30-11:00	Coffee Break
11:00-12:30	World Café Debate Three Tables with guiding questions
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:15	Bridging Innovation and Learning in Practice & Wrap-Up Day2 Erik Swars, Head of International Affairs, SFIVET Vera Hark, Project Manager/Technical Advisor, BIBB Tristan Cole, Project Officer, UNESCO-UNEVOC
14:15-14:45	Wrap up and closing Erik Swars, Head of International Affairs, SFIVET Jens Liebe, Senior Programme Expert, UNEVOC Dr. Oliver Diehl, Deputy Head of Division, Federal Ministry for Education and Research, Germany Q&A including feedback by participants
14:45-16:00	Open Networking Session Opportunity for bilateral conversations
16:00	(Open) End of workshop